OLDEST AND NEWEST METROPOLIS: Damascus, capital of Syria, one of the Bible Lands, is reputed to be the oldest continuously inhabited city in the world but in some respects it is among the most modern. The resident section, portrayed above, among the most modern. The resident section, portrayed above, is criss-crossed by broad boulevards, public parks, flowering garhe went around this part of the county on he will settle for a 10-year subscription. dens and gleaming new apartment houses. Not far from this scene is the American Embassy. The city is being re-constructed along modern lines but its ancient treasures are being preserved. Among the sights of the older section are the Biblical Street called Straight, the House of Ananias and St. Paul's Wall. It was on the road to Damascus that Paul saw a blinding light (Acts 9, 3) and was converted to Christianity.

Monticello is said to produce 85 percent of the watermelon seed for the entire United States Following the shipping season, the remaining melons are left in the fields to rot. Then the are washed out and dried. The watermelon industry is of prime importance in Jefferson county, Fla. and many growers have 100 acres or more each season.

TO GOVERNOR'S MEET Mrs. Thelma Clark, sister of Gov. James E. Folsom, was included in the Governor's party which attended the National Governor's Convention in Atlantic City, N. J. this week.

The Rev. Ralph Hendricks, pastor of the Elba Methodist Church, was called back to his former church near Pensacola one day last week to officiate at the funeral services of Mrs. O'Neal, wife of a superannuated Methodist minister. Rev. Hendricks, upon his return, said that Mrs. O'Neal had served as organist at his church during his four years as pastor, and that while she was 70 years old, she was remarkably wellpreserved and a talented musi-
